

North Dakota Career and Technical Education Career Resource Network School Year 2023-24 Workshops

Professional Development Credit

The North Dakota Department Career and Technical Education’s Career Resource Network (CRN) offers workshops that provide training and resources to education professionals to support the usage of RUPrepare.ND.gov and other career planning resources.

The NDCRN is tentatively planning on offering one (1) professional development credit for full participation in a minimum of three (3) workshops hosted by the CRN during the 2023-24 school year.

The credit offering is pending the approval of the University of North Dakota.

More information about the credit opportunity will be available in the fall.
